

Wedding Photography Proposal

Dear couple,

Congratulations on your engagement!

This is such an exciting time in your life, and I'm honored that you're considering me to be a part of your special day.

MY VISION

Meet your photographer

Hi, I'm Iryna - a passionate lifestyle wedding photographer based in Vienna.

I believe your photos should tell a story so honest and beautiful, they feel like a memory and look like art. I capture your connection - the way you look at each other, laugh together or hold hands without being told to.

Below, you'll find a detailed overview of the wedding photography services I offer.

Every Package includes:

- Free personal consultation (in Vienna or via video call)
- Professional coverage with approximately 50 high-resolution images per hour, beautifully edited and watermark-free
- Access to a password-protected online gallery for easy downloading and sharing
- Artistic post-processing: color correction, white balance and retouching of key portraits
- Free travel in Vienna (€0.60/km for other cities)

To ensure I can fully capture the essence of your day – from the anticipation in the morning to the happy moments later on – a minimum booking of 6 hours is required for a wedding day coverage. This allows enough time to document your story with care, attention to detail and artistic depth.

Every wedding package may include a beautifully crafted wedding photo book, available in a range of premium designs and finishes.

- ✓ Parent albums can only be ordered together with the main album and must be smaller than the main album. These always have simple covers without a design.
- ✓ The cover material selected for the main album will also be used for the parent albums. Main album and parent albums are produced with the same files, which are reduced proportionally.

“We’re not used to being in front of the camera. Will you help us pose?”

I don’t expect you to know what to do. I’ll gently guide you through natural, flattering poses that feel relaxed and authentic. Most of my couples start a bit nervous and end up saying: “That was so fun!” My goal is to capture the real you, your connection, laughter, and quiet moments in a way that feels effortless.

“What if the weather is bad or things don’t go as planned?”

I come prepared for anything—rain, wind, unexpected delays—because real weddings are full of surprises. I stay calm, flexible, and positive, helping you adjust the plan without stress. Some of the most magical photos happen when we embrace the moment as it is. And yes, we will take great photos under any weather conditions, inside or outside!

“How long will it take to receive our photos?”

Within the first three days after the wedding, I'll send you a sneak peek gallery so you can relive the day and share the magic. The full gallery is delivered within 4–6 weeks, beautifully edited and ready to cherish. Every image is carefully selected and polished: quality over quantity, always.

“What makes you different from other photographers?”

I don't just take photos, but tell your love story through emotion, connection and intentional artistry. Your wedding images deserve to hang on your walls and be seen every day! I'm not just there to document the day but also to support you, calm your nerves, fix your veil and make you feel deeply beautiful. My couples don't just remember how their photos looked, they remember how I made them feel.

Conclusion and Next Steps

To make your planning journey easier, I've also created a helpful wedding preparation checklist, which you can download at any time.
